WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK

Our Word.
There is a word in your loved name,
Lover and dearer and than all more sweet.
Which wanders in their wistful
dreams repeat;
Names of the happy hours which love has hung
With all high gentleness; where has clung Truth, honor, quiet joys, warm charity;
That fireside spirit, frank hospitality;
Place where our best-loved songs
are sung;
Where world-wandered children
Find the warm
Emboldening refuge of their mother's breast;
And take the blessing of the hal-
Walled garden, harbor sheltered from all storm;
Safe sanctuary, by the world's unrest Inviolable; the love-locked haven
"Home." —Samuel May.

Steinke-McElhaney.
The marriage was announced of Miss Mabel Steinke to Mr. Harold McElhaney. Rev. C. W. Kerr, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony Monday afternoon.

Miller-Wachman.
Miss Lena B. Miller and Mr. Henry C. Wachman were married at 5 o'clock on Christmas afternoon in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. D. B. Caterlin. Mr. S. Buckner read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Wachman will spend their honeymoon in Galveston. They will reside in Vera, Okla., after January 15.

Miss George Is Not Entertaining.
The announcement which appeared in the society column that Miss Louella George was entertaining with a dancing party in the Kennedy restaurant Tuesday evening is a mistake. Miss George is not giving a dance.

The Hycks club met on Saturday afternoon in open session at the public library. An interesting program was presented and Mesdames Buckner, Slagg and Hudson acted as hostesses.

KRYPTOKS

The Invisible Bifocals

are the modern glasses for near and far vision. They enable the wearer to see near and distance objects with equal clearness, and add the inconveniences of peering over glasses or changing from one pair to another. They do not have the age-revealing seam or hump of old-fashioned glasses. For this reason they are nationally known as "the invisible bifocals."

We save $300 each month by having our office upstairs. You save $3 to $10 on every pair of glasses.
